Classic Subjects: Landscape & Architecture at The Gallery through June 24, 2015

Exhibiting in Landscape & Architecture are Bob Ambrosio (Dayton), Stephanie Barbetti (Kendall Park), Ed Belding (Kendall Park), Don Bloom (East Brunswick), Lauren Curtis (Somerset), Lakshmi Durga (Monmouth Junction), Toby Ehrlich (Dayton), Gerry Feldman (East Brunswick), Carl Frankel (Monroe), Joseph Gilchrist (Hamilton), Rhonda Goodwin (Monmouth Junction), Catherine Gowen (Princeton), Barbara Hochberg (Monmouth Junction), Bryan Jeppson (East Brunswick), Vadim Levin (East Brunswick), Sofran McBride (North Brunswick), Penny Nuwer (Franklin Park), Andrea Orlando (Monmouth Junction), Louise Reeves (North Brunswick), John Sandstedt (Dayton), Nancy Scott (Lawrenceville), Joan Wheeler (Shamong) and Valerie Williams (Ewing).

About the show, juror Janet Waronker writes “When I think of landscape and architecture in art, my mind turns to en plein air and those breakout renegades, the Impressionists. I feel their passion to capture the light of day; to touch the transient and the transcendent. That desire to express one’s personal and emotional response to a place and time, is expressed eloquently by of the artists whose works are on display in this gallery. It was a pleasure to jury this themed exhibit that beckons to far flung sites and down country byways. Follow the artists who invite us to experience real and imaged worlds in a range of the media: watercolor, oil, collage, glass, wood and photography.”
